This is an abstract. It should give information about the research that is being reported, including results and significance. It should not merely state that something will be presented.

The presenting author's name should be underlined. All text is flush with the left-hand margin. Each new paragraph should be spaced and left-aligned. The font is 11 point Arial. Black and white line drawings and tables may be included in the abstract if they are within the margins. Submit as a WORD (*.doc) or WordPerfect (*.wpd) file.
